President's Message

Traveling to conferences to learn and absorb new ideas. We can do that within our club by doing new and innovative projects. Bringing in new members with fresh ideas!

Unfortunately when I travel, I miss meetings and miss attending our projects. As the school year begins, I hope to juggle my schedule to keep all of my commitments!

August is here and we all need to help sell our Bar B Q Chicken tickets. See you at the meeting on Monday!

Family Fair – A little shower of blessings

The Nu'uanu YMCA held its annual Family Fair on Friday, July 18th from 2:00 pm – 7:00 pm in Kamamalu Park, adjacent to the YMCA. The Country Store had various donations of cookies, brownies, and other treats. Shirts, toys and children games were on sale. The Family fair is used to sustain the International Youth Programs which include on-going Youth Exchange Programs with the Hiroshima and Okinawa YMCA in Japan and the Cebu YMCA in the Philippines.

One of the parents came by and bought a dozen cup cakes.

Her generosity was great, but greater still was her hear of giving as she took all of the cupcakes and gave it to the homeless that were congregated near the park's restroom!

Because of crop failure the usual watermelon and corn were not able to be donated this year.

Helping with the Country Store were Harold Kuwahara, James Ouchi, & Maurice Shimonishi. Also helping was Akemi Miyaji.

Akemi Miyaji, whom some of the club members met and befriended last year at the Nuuanu Y's Family Fair working in the Country Store. She comes to Hawaii to purposely enroll her kids in the Nuuanu Program for last year and this year. She wants them to speak English.' She can read and write and speak English fairly well. Akemi was also helping in the Country Store. She enrolled her three children, Shiho (13), Yoshi(9) and Kazu (6)(this year) in Nuuanu's Summer Program for three weeks. She has bus passes and has learned to escort them to and from Waikiki to Nuuanu daily. She drives but won't try driving in Hawaii. Harold took her family back to their Waikiki Hotel.

BBQ Chicken & Sushi Sale – 2008

This year's BBQ Chicken & Sushi sale will be held on Sunday, September 21, at the Nuuanu YMCA's parking lot. Members are asked to come to the parking lot at about 7:30AM to help erect the tent and set up tables to pack the chickens. We hope that a youth group from the Y will assist us in the set up process, pack chickens and help sell sushi and chickens. The chickens will be available for pick up from 10:00 to 2:00PM.

Tickets will be ready for distribution at our membership meeting on August 4. Members who were given tickets are asked to report to Steve Wong at 488-3087 by Monday, September 15, on the number of tickets sold, so we know how many to order from State Poultry. More specific assignments will be made at our membership meeting on Monday, September 8. Please try to sell some tickets and come to help on the sale day.

REGIONAL NEWS
MID YEAR CABINET MEETING CALLED BY RD RICHARD LAU

November 15 at the Illima Hotel

ALOHA FROM CALIFORNIA –

We just got back from a quick trip to Boston and New York. First time for us to Boston and first time in a long time to New York. Boston was very enjoyable. New York was very crowded, busy and expensive.

Kelsey is going to be a senior in high school next year, so she's very excited. And looking forward to all the activities. We're more interested in what colleges she applies to in the fall and is able to get accepted. It's getting so competitive these days. However, the California school system is very good and even if she doesn't get into Berkeley or UCLA, there are other good schools in the UC system like San Diego, Davis, Irvine or Santa Barbara. I'm sure she'll get into one of them.

Jean is still at Stanford and I'm still at Lockheed Martin. I don't know if you remember, but I met your brother at Lockheed some 20 years ago prior to my going back to Hawaii to work. I rented his (or the family) cabin in Tahoe for a couple weekends.

Anyway, hope all is well with you in Hawaii. We read the Advertiser and Star Bulletin news online everyday to keep up with the news back home.

Aloha,
Craig & Jean Teramoto - former members of our club

POTENTIAL NEW MEMBER PROSPECTS

Steve

I met a member last night who is interested in learning more about the Y's Mens and Women's club.

Kathy is on vacation now and I didn't want to give her the wrong information.

Her name is Heidi Dorn and her phone number is 292-7334.

Would you be willing to follow up with her? Let me know please.

Thank you Steve.

Jean Riederer, Nuuanu YMCA Exec

THANK YOU JEAN FOR THE REFERRAL!

METRO DISTRICT NEWS

DG Phil Chun is stressing for joint club participation.

He also is working on a new member orientation program.

Voyageur Bob's Tip 191

My authentic Voyageur expeditions have taught me an awful lot about the importance of team. Nine people in a birch bark canoe for 100 days will often do that. The whole team issue is often over stated, often under used and almost always given more lip service than action. Like the Voyageurs, many of us operate independently in our quest for success. We like it and it gives us a sense of self worth. At the same time we absolutely depend on each other. The Voyageurs couldn't paddle their canoes alone and neither can we.

To make your journey more successful look for team mates that need what you have and have what you need. Nurture those relationships, keep them intact, work them, use them! But don't forget, it IS a two-way street.
